Pouchet, Jacques, 1750-1800.

Campaigns of the armies of France, in Prussia, Saxony, and Poland, under the command of His Majesty the emperor and king, in success and vit. A work intended to record the great events of that memorable era, and the brilliant achievements of the generals, officers, and soldiers. Accompanied with biographical notices upon those who fell during that memorable campaign. Also, with historical and military details of the sieges and battles which have signalized the different countries, through which the French have just marched.
